

Department of Health Promotion and Education
COLLEGE OF PUBLIC HEALTH
UNIVERSITY OF THE PHILIPPINES MANILA

QUALITATIVE METHODS IN RESEARCH

JULY 10-14, 2017

VENUE: COLLEGE OF PUBLIC HEALTH, UP MANILA

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The training course deals with the theoretical foundations of qualitative research, development of skills on the use of selected data collection techniques used in qualitative health research and development of appropriate tools for specific data collection technique.

INTENDED AUDIENCE

- Researchers
- Program Managers
- HEPOs
- Anyone involved in teaching, health research, and program evaluation

TOPICS

- Basic Concepts in Qualitative Research
- Methods of Data Collection in Qualitative Research
- Designs in Qualitative Research
- Ethics of Qualitative Research

REGISTRATION FEE

- The Registration fee of P12,000 is inclusive of training kit, lunch, AM and PM snacks
- Mode of Payment: Cash, Cheque or Bank deposit
- For payees opting for bank deposit mode of payment, please pay the fee to UP CPH's BPI Current account - Account name: UP CPH Foundation, Inc
Account number: 3061-0738-67

For inquiries, please contact:

Prof. Jun Gregorio (Training Coordinator) at 0922 885 1348 or Ms. Cha Cañizares (cmcanizares@up.edu.ph) or Ms. Ching Bagnes at 526-0811

In celebration of the 90th Anniversary of the U.P. College of Public Health
SPECTRUM: 90 Vibrant Years of Enriching Public Health Across Boundaries